BLESSING OF HOMES

It is an ancient custom of the Church to bless homes on the Feast of Epiphany. In accordance with that ancient Custom, chalk will be blessed this weekend. A piece of this chalk will be available for you to take home. The year and the initials of the Three Wisemen are to be inscribed over the main entrance of the home in the following way:

2 0+C+M+B+18

Before the inscription is made, the following prayer is recited by the head of the house:

God of our Father, we ask you to visit this home. Chase far away from it all the snares of the enemy. Send your Holy angels to live with us and keep us at peace. We pray this in the name of Jesus who is Lord, forever and ever. Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

January 14, 2018

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you.
~ 1 Corinthians 6:19a

BEHOLD, THE LAMB OF GOD

John's introduction was a simple declaration: "Behold, the Lamb of God." The two disciples immediately responded. Jesus sensed their willing hearts and invited them to follow him. Do you sometimes wish that recognizing the Lord would be so straightforward in your own life? Would it not be wonderful if a friend could point to Christ with certainty? While we do not always have such a clear sense of God's presence with and within us, we do have a regular opportunity to encounter Christ, in the celebration of the Mass. Like the disciples, we too hear, "Behold the Lamb of God." After the consecration, just before we receive Holy Communion, the priest raises the host and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." It is like having a friend point the way to the Lord for us. Here is Christ, ready for us to receive his Body and his Blood, to enter into deep communion with him, and to live our lives as his disciples. Nourished in word and sacrament, we are called to point the way to the Lord as witnesses to Christ's love.
